The Charitable contribution of a few Dollars towards the support thro' the Winter, of Francois Cambray, a poor, industrious, unfortunate Miner, with a Wife, and small Children, whose Hand was shivered in springing a mine the 20th Ult<sup>o</sup> and has since been obliged to suffer Amputation, is humbly requested of the humane and generous encouragers of Honest Industry. —

In Feb<sup>r</sup> 1772 The Hon<sup>ble</sup> Charles James Fox quarrelled with Lord North and is said to have sent his Lordship the following laconic Epistle.

"My Lord you have grossly insulted me
" and I will resent it. I am just going " to St. James's to resign my place to the " King."

However in December the same year he recommended himself to the Minister, and accepted a seat at the Treasury Board

My Lord yours is before me, and it will soon be behind me.
