Kerse House, 29th August 1809.

ORKNEY ARREARS.

THE Arrears of Superior Duties due to Lord DUNDAS by the Landholders of Orkney are so very considerable, and great part has been so long owing, that his Lordship finds it necessary to give positive instructions for the recovery of them. He therefore desires intimation to be made to the Landholders, that Payment of the Arrears due for Crop 1807 and precedings must be made between and Martinmas 1809, and the Duties for 1808, at or before Whitsunday 1810. If the Arrears are not punctually paid at these terms, Prosecutions will be raised for recovery of them, unless the Landholders grant their Bills for what they owe, payable at Sir WILLIAM FORBES and COMPANY'S, three months after date.
