

That where James Sandison of Ayr is Justly Resting and Owing to the Said Complaint or Sum of £108-10^{/-} conforme to and particular account hereunto produced and as herein Repeated Brevitatis causa and albeit Verily that The Said pursors has of and Diverse Times Sought and Required the Said James Sandison to make payment and Satisfaction to him of the ~~Said~~ ^{Said} Sum ~~of the sum of £108-10-0~~ ^{of the sum of £108-10-0} Resting by the Said James Sandison to the Said W. James Smith yet never the less here newly Refuses payment and Delay to Do the Same Which he be compelled of so therefore he ought and should be Secured and Ordained by the Court to make pay and Satisfaction to the Said pursors of the Said Sum of £108-10-0 With Two Shilling Scots for each pound Part of the Said Sum of Expenses of Decree after the form and Tenor of the Daily practice of Scotland used or observed in the Like cases

Command of Court by

James M. Jones

Trinity

pro
Anderson

1780

41514