

To the Honorable the 22^d Day of September 1758 years and of the Majestys reign the 22^d year in the 1st year of the reign of the late King the personal self writing long & personally made by the said James Gray in the presence of the said James Smith & others who were present at the time of the writing of the said Charter & Dupon

also the said James Gray in the presence of the said James Smith & others made and granted by the said Taylor & others in the presence of the said James Gray the 2^d Day of April 1676 years viz

That the said Taylor sold & conveyed & conveyed to the said John Gray his heirs and assigns of or hereby & predeminably all the whole that his piece of waste ground lying above the shore of the town of Bromnes consisting of 20 fadoms of measure north and south bounded being Patrick Morcal Carpenter his house & garden on the south The said Thomas dwelling house and land on the north and being the house of Chalmer his house and land on the east and being Johnstone Shipper in the said Parish his house and lands on the west all lying within the said Parish of Bromnes Mainland & by the said with the whole of the said land also a disposition made & granted by James Gray eldest law peer son & heir to John Gray some time Sailer in Bromnes of date the 1st day of December 1713 years viz

That the said James Gray sold & conveyed to the said James Gray his youngest son & heir the said land & house & garden & garden containing the said land & house & garden & garden upon the said land & house & garden & garden of or hereby & greatly all the said land & house & garden & garden himself lying on the west side of his great house and all and have his house & garden & garden & garden on the south side of the said land & house & garden & garden all on the east and equal half of his half yard lying the north side of his great house & garden & garden half of his duoy of land bounded & measured as the said granted to his said father by the death of the said Taylor some time Sailer in Bromnes

only son and heir of the said James Gray & others who were present at the time of the writing of the said Charter & Dupon
after reading and publishing of the said Charter & Dupon before witnessed the said James Gray & others who were present at the time of the writing of the said Charter & Dupon represented that the said James Smith & others who were present at the time of the writing of the said Charter & Dupon
had most wrongfully & unjustly intermeddled upon the said land & house & garden & garden granted & conveyed as aforesaid in the said Charter & Dupon of the same Charter & Dupon of the said land & house & garden & garden the said James Gray & others who were present at the time of the writing of the said Charter & Dupon also & granted and that by the the personal self writing long & personally made by the said James Gray in the presence of the said James Smith & others who were present at the time of the writing of the said Charter & Dupon the said James Gray in the presence of the said James Smith & others made and granted by the said Taylor & others in the presence of the said James Gray

the 2^d Day of April 1676 years viz
That the said Taylor sold & conveyed & conveyed to the said John Gray his heirs and assigns of or hereby & predeminably all the whole that his piece of waste ground lying above the shore of the town of Bromnes consisting of 20 fadoms of measure north and south bounded being Patrick Morcal Carpenter his house & garden on the south The said Thomas dwelling house and land on the north and being the house of Chalmer his house and land on the east and being Johnstone Shipper in the said Parish his house and lands on the west all lying within the said Parish of Bromnes Mainland & by the said with the whole of the said land also a disposition made & granted by James Gray eldest law peer son & heir to John Gray some time Sailer in Bromnes of date the 1st day of December 1713 years viz
That the said James Gray sold & conveyed to the said James Gray his youngest son & heir the said land & house & garden & garden containing the said land & house & garden & garden upon the said land & house & garden & garden of or hereby & greatly all the said land & house & garden & garden himself lying on the west side of his great house and all and have his house & garden & garden & garden on the south side of the said land & house & garden & garden all on the east and equal half of his half yard lying the north side of his great house & garden & garden half of his duoy of land bounded & measured as the said granted to his said father by the death of the said Taylor some time Sailer in Bromnes only son and heir of the said James Gray & others who were present at the time of the writing of the said Charter & Dupon after reading and publishing of the said Charter & Dupon before witnessed the said James Gray & others who were present at the time of the writing of the said Charter & Dupon represented that the said James Smith & others who were present at the time of the writing of the said Charter & Dupon had most wrongfully & unjustly intermeddled upon the said land & house & garden & garden granted & conveyed as aforesaid in the said Charter & Dupon of the same Charter & Dupon of the said land & house & garden & garden the said James Gray & others who were present at the time of the writing of the said Charter & Dupon also & granted and that by the

