

D<sup>r</sup> Sir

Dec 30th 1782

You no Doubt would have Accounts from Bray; John as oft as myself, as I find his first letter to me came to your place, and I am greatly obliged to you for your attention in forwarding the same, that letter mentioned his safe arrivall at Killeck, I have Received another from him from Carleton Island, and his last from the Place Niagara where he designs to Remain for some time, I have Received a letter from Montreill from a young man an Acquaintance of mine who has Made me a Remittance of £12 Sterling in order to pay my Passage to that part next March, when then I mean to leave this place, my Bray; would Acquaint of the I also thought proper to Acquaint you and my Sister in of the same, that if she Means Writing my Bray; by m. to give her early Notice, I have been since the Month of June last in a Writing office here where I would be Satisfied to Remain some time, unless this unthought of opportunity have past up, I would be Glad to hear from you in private, and Acquaint me of any Necessities about your Family or Place, and expecting the same I remain with Compl<sup>t</sup> to you and Humbly D<sup>r</sup> Sir Yours Most respectfully James Urquhart

Am 30 December 1782

Dear Sir

Jan 1st 1782

A

Mr. Joshua Johnston, Writer

in

by Richard Cromwell

