

Dear Brog

Thurs 11th Sept 1779

Inclosed you have a letter that was wrote this five days ~~last~~ ~~was~~ writing Mr Falconer but this morning I am made to ~~attend~~ ~~at~~ ~~the~~ ~~house~~ by calling at Colnot making that he set off and left with Miss Anne whom I presume more than Mr Falconer whom I really thought would have not used me such for I being some what Engaged in the way of my business would have had my Attention of knowing morally what time they would have left off

But I am hopeful I shall be forgiven as there was no negligence of mine - I am hopeful you will write me a long letter to Fair as to favor about Mrs. G. who's letter can you may depend on a handsome return on Receipt of the same with all the Commissions

You Doubtly can send - You will be so

Good as good my best respects to Mr. & Mrs. G.

To the Mother & Family &

Remain with Reciprocal

your Dear Brog

Mr. Excuse last but do not forget me to Mrs. G.
