

Dear Brother Mrs. 11. 2. 1701

I have been long time ago intended writing you by the first opportunity but having but very few since you left Paris. I now take this opportunity of writing you this few lines in hope it will reach such you before you leave London it will be very agreeable if we have the happiness to see you and to see her on your way to your dear father and we all are longed very much for alar from your own hand. I hope you will observe that pleasure as in your own curing for no expenses as it offers with a great of satisfaction pray write me all the news that you was asking for me and what you are about my dear London may God bless you and protect you is the earnest wish of your loving sister

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Johnston

I would been happy had you been here at Christmas as you would been your self but you should be contented with every thing it is the foundation of happiness. I hope you will not grieve when you go forth from home for grief seems no end but is too soon the mind and sense on you no more but God bless from your loving sister

Katherine Johnston
