

Dear Sir

MS/3/7

I Received your very kind Letter and both Mr Dickson and I were very glad to hear of Mrs Johnstone and your well being and write in thanking you for the very kind Linings you sent us, I Delivered the Letter to Mr John Taylor but not till lately on account of his not being in London. He is in very good health for I sent this morning to know. He said He had nothing particular to say, but would write soon He lives N^o 14 Lambeth Road, He is married, I do not know how long He means to stay in Town, I called on Mr Brunner who told me that He had heard from Mr Taylor in Halifax in March last and that He was very well, but Mr B can give me no information respecting the parcel that He sent to Mrs Johnstone. I have sent agreeable to your request the mode dining and ^{the} giving for Mrs Johnstones Cloak, I hope it will give her and you satisfaction I am sure that I have done my endeavours that it should, I have inclosed the Bill and would wish you when it is convenient and agreeable to pay the money to Mr Omar. Mrs Dickson join me in best Compliments to you & Mrs Johnstone and your Mother. We are all in good health thank God & hope you are the same.

My D^r Sir

London May 25th

Yours Sincerely
James Dickson

798

N. 6 Church Street
Spitalfields

When you write if you direct it under cover to Capt. Kempton & Co. it will come free

Geo. Jackson 1798

Mr John Johnston

Stirling

J. Jackson
25 May 1798

Mr J. Jackson
London May 25
1798
Mr J. Jackson
24 June