Madam

I have examined into the state of your late Sons Acc<sup>t</sup> with Mess<sup>rs</sup> Cooks & Co and find they have only received his pay & Proze Money for the Audacious, and proze Money for Dictator consequently, his pay and proze Money (if any) for the Texel. Dictator and Barstew is still due, therefore it will be necessary for you to Administer for what may be coming to him You had better come over to morrow and be at Somerset house by twelve o'clock where I will meet you and conduct you to the office of Mr. Beddingfield, Inspector of Mills where your business may be done without trouble or great expense. I am Madam

Your most obed<sup>t</sup>

Humble Servant
