London Jan. 9th 1805

Dear Sister,

According to my promise to write you should I remove my lodgings this is to say I am now at Mr Woodalls No 49 Basinghall Street. I hope you have by this time paid your son Henry in the situation you spoke of I regret it was not in my power, to comply with the request in our Brother's letter, & on which subject I wrote him at full in my answer thereto. — You will be sensible thereby I have nothing to rely on but my own industry & I therefore at once candidly informed you of my decision on that subject
If you intend Shabby to come to Town
I shall be happy to see you. Valmain

Dear sister

Yours affectionately
Henry Taylor

P.S. I hope my Brother & his family are well & beg to be kindly remembered to them.
