Dear Nanny

I expected I should have received a letter from you before this as I have not ordered the setting of the miniature till I heard from you I had a letter from your Mother the day before yesterday she wishes to have some Beads sewn down, and some Blue velvet for two Spencers - her Gown she requests to be made to fit me fashionably, she says Thommets is quite gay in point of dress. your present to me I showed to your Uncle Henry and strange to tell he the day after

Bought Mrs. a Coral Necklace he told his Brother that he intended to make me a present before his departure so you see how generous he is, the fact is, it was your present that urged him. I will try if I cannot get something from him to send to Johnny - whether I succeed or no, I will inform you, when do you think you will sail from Portsmouth, did you see Mr. Dutton? I have not heard from John since you went away my Brother James is appointed to your Old Ship the Dictator, and joined her about ten days ago, how do you like Portsmouth?
Let me hear from you soon as you can conveniently write. The Bids are all well, your Uncle desires his best
