

Addressed to: J.Antrobus

From: J & P

Quebec 22nd March 1787

M^f J.Antrobus

Dear Sir,

The confidence you repose in us in the communication of a business of so important a nature to your future happiness demands our thanks which please accept.

As the weather is fine Mr Howard (?) will do the needful otherwise we should have taken pleasure in doing the office required.

Mrs Johnston (who & Johnny are well) joins us in best respects to the young lady your intended bride wishing you both every blessing & comfort the matrimonial state is capable of affording. We remain sincerely

Dear Sir

Your most obed^t hble serv^{ts}

J & P