

Addressed to: Mr Jn Johnston at Mr Morrison's, Four Tree Hill, Enfield

From: Mr Crafts Mackay, London

D^r Cousin,

I rec^d yours. Have delivered your letter to M^r Sands a son of the minister of Hoy who sails tomorrow for the Orkneys. I have not as yet been able to get any franks but expects to have some in a few days. Your aunt has the order^g & managem^t of what necessaries M^r Brymer has ordered you in fine shirts any further. I am a stranger you a letter from your father but you the least notice of having rec^d it. You me no intelligence in your last of any kind course you cannot expect any. Lord George Gordon is acquitted. I conclude

Y^r affec^t cousin

C Mackay

Tuesday eve^g 10 O'Clock