Dear Johnston,

I am happy to inform you of being safe down here, and hopes to have an agreeable passage home, as the gentlemen are very polite. Be pleased to present my most respectfull compl^{ts} to Mess^{rs} Johnston & Purss and to all the good ladys at the mount, not forgetting my lovely Miss Hatty & intended. Let her know she shall here from me when I get to England but that's under the rope. Wishing you health

Belive me your sincere friend & well wisher

W Sinclair
